Researching Companies

BE PREPARED:

1. Check your email to see your assigned company.
2. Do some research to prepare for meaningful conversations.
3. Prepare your resume and rehearse your elevator pitch.

RESUME TIP:

Tailor your resume for each company, highlighting relevant skills and experience.

GET TO KNOW THEM:

- Visit their website (About Us, Careers, Meet the Team)
- Review key skills they look for Check their socials for recent projects or updates

QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER:

- What products or services does the company offer?
- What is the company culture like?
- What are the company's mission and values?
- What opportunities are available?
- Is work in-person, remote, or hybrid
- What related experiences do I have?

Arriving informed makes an impression! A little prep goes a long way.

Elevator Pitch

"Tell me about yourself"

A brief 30-60 second introduction that summarizes your experience, skills, and interests, leaving a memorable impression on recruiters.

THINK ABOUT:

What makes you unique?

What relevant experience do you have?

What do you want them to remember about you?

Practice your pitch out loud until it sounds natural. Keep it brief and maintain eye contact. Be confident!

THINGS TO INCLUDE:

Name, major

Relevant experience:

- Skills, projects, or extracurriculars
- Choose 1-2 examples and keep each to a sentence or two. Focus on results you achieved.

Intentions

- Relate your experience to your interests and future goals.
- Tie your interests/experiences back to the company you're connecting with

Keep it natural: Try not to seem like you're reciting a memorized script; keep your tone conversational and convey your personality.

Networking & Conversation Tips

COME PREPARED:

Have questions ready for recruiters; showing genuine curiosity sets you apart. Generic questions are good, but tailoring them to their work is better!

SAMPLE QUESTIONS (Come up with your own!) :

- What has been the most rewarding project you've worked on?
- What skills have you found most essential in this role?
- What does a typical day look like for you?
- How have you grown in your role since joining the company?
- What are the toughest problems or decisions you have to handle?
- What do you like best about working for this company?
- What type of background do you look for when hiring for this position?
- What's something you wish you'd known before starting your career?

FOLLOW UP:

Express gratitude and exchange contact information (LinkedIn, email). Follow up promptly to show continued interest.

PRO TIP: Jot down notes when you have a free moment so your follow-up is personal and specific.

What to Wear

GENERAL TIPS:

- DO NOT bring any bags, purses, and backpacks inside of the venue
- Avoid over-accessorizing
- Wear comfortable shoes
- Keep hair clean and makeup natural
- Bring copies of your resume in a folder
- Neutral colors: beige, white, or ivory tops; blue, black, or gray bottoms

TOPS:
Collared/button-down shirts, blouses,blazers

BOTTOMS:
Slacks, skirts at/below the knee
